Cap and Cino

This month our friends find out about the seasons of the year!

Cap and Cino are most unusual friends. You see Cap is a cat and Cino is a dog and that is certainly quite peculiar. Cap and Cino live in a rather splendid cafe called 'Coates House' where they help out with the washing up and every now and again find themselves in the middle of some quite amazing adventures.

Now, you may have noticed that in the last few weeks we've had some lovely sunny days followed by heavy rain and hail and not far from here, even snow! Cino wasn't really sure which time of year it was – Summer, Winter, Spring or Autumn, so he decided to ask his friend Cap about 'seasons'. "Someone in the kitchen told me it was something to do with Salt and Pepper, but how can that make the weather change outside?" he questioned. Cap suggested that they go for a walk so that he could explain it to Cino by going exploring outside.

It was a lovely warm day with the sun shining overhead and the friends chatted as they walked along. "Winter is usually the coldest time of year" explained Cap. "It might snow and often the cars are frosted up in the mornings. Not many plants grow in the Winter and even the sun doesn't stick around for long each day! On the other hand, Summer is usually the warmest time of year because the sun rises early in the day and sets late into the evening." "So why do people fly away to other countries to go on holiday when it's just getting nice and sunny here?" quizzed Cino! "Who knows?" replied Cap. "Autumn is a bit like Winter in that it's quite cold but a lot of people seem to like that time of year. Something about the colour of the leaves on the trees puts a smile on their face!". "So, which season are we in right now?" asked Cino, feeling that he was sure the weather had recently been a bit of all these things! "It's Spring" said Cap with a smile. "Flowers are just starting to appear again and hopefully we will soon start to feel the warmth of the sun replacing the chill of the wind!" "You can only hope" they laughed!
